

Activity sheet

My article

Use this page to draft your INSTRUCTION article.

Your task:

1. Can you write up to 300 words about your chosen subject?
2. Can you challenge yourself to use great vocabulary?
3. Can you reveal unusual and interesting information?

Remember our general top tips:

- Just write it! Straight from your brilliant brain. You can polish it later.
- Make sure that your points are backed up with evidence and examples.
Can you insert a statistic? A quote?
- Remember who you are writing for. What voice should you use? Formal or informal?

And finally: dare to be different! Have you found out something that no one else knows?

INSTRUCTION SPECIFIC TOP TIPS:

- What voice should you use? Use bossy command verbs! You are instructing your reader how to do something.
- Are you going to use a pull-out (a key short phrase or sentence from your main text that you want to make sure everyone knows)? What key point would you use as a pull-out?

INSTRUCTION

What are you showing people how to do?

*This could be your heading.
(How to...)*

Activity sheet

My article

INSTRUCTION

Write your introduction here:

Can you summarise what your reader will be learning? Can you tell the reader about the sort of people who do the thing that you are teaching?

What do you need?

List any equipment that you will need. (You will need:)

How do you make/do it?

List your five key steps that teach the reader here:

1.
.....
2.
.....
3.
.....
4.
.....
5.
.....

Is there a special top tip that you can give the reader?

Let them know here. (To do this really well you should...).